

PROGRESS ON LOCAL BUILDING PROJECTS

During the past week no new projects in the building line have been started but in the next few weeks the work of excavating for the foundation of the new St. Mary's church will be started. Also the purchase of the Marlborough-Rockwell plant on Franklin street by the J. B. Martin company will mean extensive alterations before the plant is in operation.

Cutworth & Thompson, architects, have completed plans for a two-story building for Daniel Finn of Jewett City and the building is to be located in the rear of the present Finn block in Jewett City. It will be used as a garage or bowling alley. The building is to be of frame construction, 40x50 feet. The first floor is to be used as a garage and on the second floor will be a bowling alley and billiard parlor. The foundation will be of concrete and stone and the floor of the garage will be of cement. The contract for the building has not been awarded.

L. Rosenberg has filed application with Fire Marshal Howard L. Stanton for permission to make alterations to his barn at 194 West Main street. Mr. Rosenberg intends to make the barn over into a frame garage with stone and brick foundations. The contract has not been awarded.

Work on the alteration of Room 110 in the Thayer building has been started and when completed will be used as an office for Dr. Thompson, now an internist at the Backus hospital. Partitions are being built and new fixtures are being installed.

Contractor P. P. Sweeney has completed the new building in Western for the Alling Rubber company and the building is now ready for occupation. There are six stores in the building.

Dr. J. J. Donohue is to erect a 20x30 foot garage in the rear of his house on Perkins avenue. The garage will be of frame construction, with concrete foundation and floor. The sides will be shingled and the floor will be covered with composition shingles. Contractor P. P. Sweeney has the contract.

The work of excavating for the garage at 315 Main street is practically completed, although a small blasting job will have to be done before the work of laying the foundation can be started. The structure is to be a six room bungalow.

The stops work on the garage for P. P. Sweeney on Lake street has been completed and carpenters will start on the wood work this week.

At the Warner Bros. new box shop on Meyers alley the work on the interior is practically complete. The smokestack has been re-inforced and the staging removed. It is expected that the machinery for the plant will arrive within the next few days and will be installed immediately upon its arrival.

NEW LONDON.

Samuel Dystein will erect a store and tenement building for himself on Connecticut avenue. It will be of frame construction, 22x25 feet, two stories high, with a store on the ground floor and two tenements of five rooms each on the second. It will be heated by furnace and fitted with all improvements, including electric lights, etc. The cost will be $24,000.

Work has been started on a building for Bulla Zieniewsky on Winthrop street. It will be 12x12 feet, of frame construction, one story high, and will be used as a bakery. It will cost about $3,000.

The contract for the erection of the proposed new structure for the National Bank of Commerce has been given to the E. F. Miner Building Co. of Worcester, Mass. The building will be 40x100 feet, of masonry and brick, one story, and the interior will be provided with the most modern bank equipment. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $150,000.

Contractors Canning & Leary have taken the contract for building a garage on Coleman street for Marion Belcher. It will be of frame construction, 20x30, one story high, with cement floor. It will be lighted with electric and will be large enough to accommodate three cars, costing approximately $1,200.

Contractor Jancichovsky has started work on alterations and a new storefront to the store of P. Xanakis on Bank street. The work will cost about $1,500.

Building Permits.

Markan Iverson, frame addition, Ocean

Beach, Cost $500.

J. N. LaPoint, brick addition, Pequot avenue, Cost $14,000.

A. H. Wilkinson, frame addition, Ocean Beach, Cost $6,000.

Albert Menigh, frame addition, Smith street, Cost $2,000.

J. V. Jordan, frame garage, Squire street, Cost $1,500.

Total number of permits for the week, 3; estimated cost of buildings, $24,900.

STAFFORD SPRINGS.

Architects have been commissioned to draw the plans for the proposed grammar school to be erected on Prospect street. The building will be constructed of brick and will contain nine classrooms, assembly hall, domestic science rooms, manual training department, etc. The cost will be $125,000, and the architects will take bids in about three weeks.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

AND MORTGAGE LOANS

Norwich had 23 sales of real estate during the past week to 11 for the same period last year. The mortgage loans for the respective weeks amounted to $29,980 and $6,400.

In New London there were 7 sales of realty the past week to 11 for the same period last year. The loans for the two weeks were $24,300 and $37,413, respectively.

FINE OIL PAINTING OF

FREDERICK HENRY SYKES

A fine oil painting about five feet by six feet of the late Frederick Henry Sykes, first president of the Connecticut College for Women, is now on display in the public library at New London Monday morning.

This painting is to remain there for a short time after which it will be removed to the college and placed on the wall in the president's office.

The portrait is of the late President Sykes sitting, with his left hand against his chin, and those who knew President Sykes assert that the portrait is a striking likeness.

It was painted by an American artist, Bayard Henry Tyler of Yonkers-on-the-Hudson, N. Y.

On the base of the frame of President Sykes, portrait is the following inscription: "Frederick Henry Sykes, 1857-1918. First President of Connecticut College for Women, 1914-1917."

COUNTY AGENT JOHNSON

TAKES UP DUTIES HERE

H. F. Johnson, successor to Walter S. Mansfield as county agent for New London county, took charge of the farm bureau office at the Thayer building on Monday. Mr. Johnson came here from Newport, Vt., where he was county agent for Orleans county, that state. Mr. Johnson will arrive in Norwich within a week or two.

NORWICH TOWN

The community was saddened upon learning of the death of Julia Lathrop, widow of Walter Potter, Monday morning, at her home on East Town street, following a critical illness of less than a week. Mrs. Potter, who was the daughter of the late Jacob and Julia Backus Lathrop, was born Sept. 2, 1855, in Franklin, Conn. She was united in marriage with Walter Potter, Nov. 16, 1887, at Norwich town, the ceremony being performed by her uncle, Rev. J. W. Backus. Mrs. Potter has resided in Norwich town practically all her life. Prior to her marriage she was a teacher in the old schoolhouse that stood where the present Town Street school is located. Besides her daughter, Miss Ruth L. Potter, she is survived by a sister, Miss Helen M. Lathrop of Washington street, and a brother, Alanson P. Lathrop of New York city. There are also nieces and nephews, among them Miss Elizabeth Luther of Connecticut Agricultural College, Storrs, who made her home with Mrs. Potter and the latter's daughter also Philip Luther, of Springfield, Ohio; children of the late Alanson and Gertrude Lathrop Luther, of Norwich town.

Mrs. Potter was a valued member of the First Congregational church. One who knew her well writes:

"There has passed from us most suddenly one whom we loved and who loved us, whom we always rejoiced to see, whose presence brightened our gatherings, smoothed our ruffled ways, whose many beautiful qualities of Christian character made her life one of the most precious possessions of our church and Sunday school. Her interest in all whom she knew, her deep desire for the best good of the church and its varied interests, the faithful performance of daily duty, were evidences of the life within."

"For many years a teacher in the Sunday school, for a still longer time secretary of the Lathrop Memorial Missionary society, constant in attendance at all church services, doing her part in many unknown ways, the path she has made will be desolate. To us remains the leader, Mrs. C. Eugene Saunders, to which she always gladly took up and to which she gave the enthusiasm of a consecrated life."

"Those in the home have our sympathy in the loss of one whom we all need most, now and here."

Home Chorus of the King's Daughters

was in charge of the musical hour at Backus hospital Sunday afternoon. From 2:30 to 4:30, the Norwich Town Quintet, consisting of Miss Edith M. Dodge, the church organist, as director, and Miss Arthur C. Fuller of New London, who have been passing the winter at St. Petersburg, Fla., returned on Friday, and were guests over Sunday of Mrs. Fuller's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of 274 Washington street.

Miss Dorothy Larkham returned to Storrs Monday to resume her duties at the Connecticut Agricultural College after a stay of seven weeks at her home at her home on Plain Hill, due to illness.

Miss Edna Herbert of Town street was the guest over Monday night of Miss Bernice Beebe of Bordoloi Place, New London.

Mrs. Frederick H. Bushnell of Huntington avenue spent Friday at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rose of Uncasville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Ross and family have moved from New London to 413 Washington street.

Mrs. S. I. Bonney and daughter, Miss J. G. Bonney of Huntington line, who have been passing nearly a week with relatives in Whiteville, have returned.

Mrs. George Tubbs of Boston is visiting at her former home on Upper Washington street.

The Misses Lathrop are moving from Huntington line to their former home on the Scotland road.

Misses Doris Estelle and Muriel Blanche Rose, of Uncasville, spent the week-end at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rose, of Wawecus Hill.

NORWICH TESTIMONY

Home Proof, Here, There and Everywhere.

When you see Dean's Kidney Pills recommended in this paper you must always find the recommender a Norwich resident. It's the same everywhere—in 2,500 towns in the U. S. Fifty thousand people publicly thank Dean's. What other kidney remedy can give this proof of merit, honesty and truth? Home testimony must be true or it could not be published here. Read this Norwich recommendation. Then insist on having Dean's. You will know what you are getting:

Mrs. B. H. Hiscoc, 1 Ripley Place, says: "I have used Dean's Kidney Pills on different occasions and I usually keep them in the house. I have always found Dean's helpful, for they relieve backache promptly. I recommend Dean's Kidney Pills, because I know they can be depended upon."

BABY WEEK

Everyone else has had a week of it except baby. So all over the country, this week, merchants are making extensive displays of baby garments of all kinds. And there is a fascination about the dainty little garments which is hard to resist. They are oh so pretty, and best of all they are designed for baby comfort as well as for beauty. It is hard to describe them accurately, but if you can conjure up in your mind, a healthy, happy, pink and white baby, bubbling over with laughter, dressed in such clothes as a young mother makes for her first born, you will have some idea of how pretty these baby clothes are.

To Wear Underneath

We start with the all-important garments which must come next to baby's tender skin—those which must not irritate and yet must completely protect from colds. We have a very complete line of Baby Shirts—cotton ones at 59c and 89c—mixtures of wool and cotton at $1.15 and $1.00—silk and wool at $2.00 to $2.50. These we have for the wee baby, and up to the sturdy six-year-old. Bands, too, from 59c to $1.00.

Other Necessary

Garments

The Flannel Grotches, in either long or short styles are priced from $1.25 to $3.98, and Pinning Blankets from 75c to $1.25—indispensable for the newest baby. Infants' Gowns, too, are absolute necessities, so we carry a large assortment, priced from 89c to $1.59.

Sweaters, Sacques

and Kimonas

Here's where the lover of dainty baby clothes can find satisfaction, for dainty beauty as well as utility has entered into the designing. The cutest little sweaters and dresses that you can imagine will from $2.50 to $3.98, and long Kimonas, in flannel, silk or cashmere—$1.25 to $7.50.

Pretty Baby Dresses

The more expensive ones are all hand-made, and exhibit some very fine embroidery. The cheaper ones are machine-made, of course, but are as sweet and dainty, not at all standing. Prices all the way from $1.50 to $5.98.

Rompers For the Active Baby

When little sister or brother starts to creep, Rompers are absolutely needed. They do not hamper the muscular action and keep all the clothing much cleaner. We have them in straight leg and peg top models, in both white and colors—the prices running from $1.50 to $5.98.

Some Additions to the List

Baby Pillow Slips, all the way from $1.50 to $6.98, afford many glimpses of really beautiful work as the more expensive ones are real Madras.

Bootees from 59c to $2.00, and Bibs from 19c to $2.00, and Mitts even are all baby necessities, and all of them we have in dainty assortments.

Carriage Robes and

Baby Blankets

Any mother loves to dress her carriage up to match the baby, and if it keeps up with baby it has to be well-dressed, too. These carriage robes of blue, or Japanese Silk or the daintily embroidered robes are wonderfully attractive—prices are pleasing, too, from $1.50 to $18.00. Pink or blue are the blankets, and they are covered with the little figures which children love. We have them all the way from $1.50 to $2.98.

Baby Shoes and Moccasins

At $1.25 and $1.50 they sound hopeful when compared with shoe prices generally, but baby will need many pairs of them. We must not stop before we mention the beautiful Jap Silk Kimonas, in pink and blue and daintily embroidered. Any reasonable baby would be proud to appear in one at $4.98 or $5.98.

A NEW LINE OF MADEIRA BONNETS, BIBS, LONG AND SHORT DRESSES, SKIRTS, DRAWERS, PILLOW SLIPS AND CARRIAGE ROBES, JUST RECEIVED.

A FEW OF CLUETT, PEABODY COMPANY'S

ARROW BRAND COLLARS AT $1.50 A DOZEN

ONLY SMALL SIZES LEFT

We have a few of these 30c Collars left—sizes 12, 12½, 13½, 13¾, 14, 14¼—five good styles, and not a collar in the lot but what is retailing regularly for 30c. For the man who wears a small size, or for the boy, here is the chance you have been looking for. There are five good styles for your choice—not all sizes in every style, but all six sizes in one or two of the sizes at least.

Swift & Company

Does Not Control Its Raw Material

Other industries can buy their raw materials according to need or judgment, and set a selling price. They need manufacture only what they can sell at their price.

Cotton, wool, wheat, lumber, iron, steel, and other non-perishables, can be held either by their producers or their users until needed.

But live stock comes to market every day in fluctuating quantities from scattered sources, wholly uncontrolled and at times without regard to market needs.

An immediate outlet must be found for the perishable products, at whatever price, as only a very small proportion can be stored.

No one can foresee or stipulate what they shall bring; prices must fluctuate from day to day to insure keeping the market clear.

Only the most exacting care of every detail of distribution enables Swift & Company to make the small profit from all sources of a fraction of a cent per pound, necessary for it to continue to obtain capital and maintain operations.
